

*Feeling called to an evening of hushed contemplation,
to open more fully to the mystery of God's love?
You might want to consider...*

The Anchorage "Desert Evening"

Tuesday, June 20, "Summer Solstice"

7:00 – 8:30pm

Come away* for spacious silence within a gentle rhythm of music and reflection both together and in solitude, allowing the Holy Spirit to open our hearts and our hands through the mystery of discovering more deeply our true source of inner peace, healing and guidance.

Each Desert Evening will have a different theme, perhaps focusing on the light and darkness because of the tilt of the earth. The point of each evening is time in quiet with our holy and loving God. A possible schedule will be:

- 7:00 Introductions, Opening Prayer, comments on topic, with handout for reflection
- 7:30 Find space to be with God – sit quietly, walk
- 8:00 Gather for Closing Prayer
- 8:30 adjourn

Within the unhurried rhythm of the evening, rest in a rocking chair, in a swing on a secluded deck or in the prayer garden and just "be." Sense God within you, and respond with your heart.
